

To whom it may concern:

While we were still in Monterey, California, Kara Riso Anderson's name was one among four or so that was given to us as possible agents in Council Bluffs. Our agent in Monterey looked at our list and checked qualifications for us. He even talked with two of the agents. We chose Kara and are delighted that we did. As soon as she got our list of wants via e-mail, she sent us several listings which we looked at closely over the time our home was in the selling process in Monterey. We were in contact many times during that process. The day we arrived in Council Bluffs she showed us the two homes we were the most interested in. Within the next couple days she showed us additional homes. She then walked us through the whole process of buying our home. She was always available to us and always helpful. We've been in our home just over 5 weeks and her work is officially done, but the other day she called to remind us of taxes and then went above and beyond the call of duty to help us with paper work. We would whole heartedly recommend Kara as an agent to anyone.
