

We SOLD our house!!

Those are the exciting words any home seller wants to hear, in as short as time as possible. Kara Riso Anderson sold our house in two months. She is exceptional. Words that would describe Kara would be: professional, efficient, diligent, honest, forthcoming, direct, funny, relaxed and very outgoing. I really could go on, but words just don't express how awesome Kara really is. We had the pleasure of working not only with her, but her husband Dustin (owner of Red Construction) and he was also extremely professional, and well they are both just AWESOME! She not only sold our house, but she went through extreme lengths to find us our new house. ☺ She must have showed us what felt like a million houses....she was extremely flexible, and she communicated EVERYTHING to us; which is the way we wanted it. At times, I know I drove her crazy with all of the texts I sent her and the thousand emails.... But she responded to every one of them and she never once made me feel like an obligation or a duty. She really puts you at ease, which is beneficial. If you can't communicate with your Realtor about anything, you have the wrong Realtor. You can talk to Kara about anything, any time. If she doesn't know the answer (a rare instance!) she will find the answer and get back to you ASAP. I really can't say enough about how much I love working with Kara.

Kara still texts and emails me just to check in on how we are doing in our new house and to see if we need anything. She wants to make sure that we are happy in our new place... what other Realtor does that?!!

I can honestly say that I am "off" the market; as long as Kara is in business, she will have my business. A person would be crazy not to use Kara Riso Anderson as their Realtor, or they are not serious about buying/selling their house.
